

CONTINUING EDUCATION PROGRAMS

The College of Nursing and Health Sciences provides continuing education programs open to registered nurses and others for the purposes of professional development or to meet requirements for maintaining specialty certification. A listing of current courses can be found on the College of Nursing and Health Sciences' web page at <http://www.lewisu.edu/nursing> (<http://www.lewisu.edu/nursing/>) or in the current University Course Schedule. Upon completion of the continuing education program, the student will be awarded a certificate of completion.