

FINANCIAL INFORMATION

Full-Time Undergraduate Costs

Current information related to tuition and fees is found at <https://www.lewisu.edu/welcome/offices/business/bursar/tuitionrates.htm>

Testing Fees

Students who wish to make use of special testing programs available through the University pay the fees charged by the testing agency or by the official examiners, as well as a posting fee. The College Level Examination Program (C.L.E.P.), various proficiency examinations, and Prior Learning Assessment are administered by the School of Graduate, Professional, and Continuing Education.

Room and Board

Room rental varies according to the residence hall and the number of students in a room. New students are assigned rooms based on availability and order of receipt of application. Current students participate in a room re-application process during the spring semester of each academic year.

The University provides dining hall meals for resident students, all of whom are required to select a meal plan that best suits their needs.

Tuition Refund Policy

The following policies refer to all registered courses (classroom-based, online, blended, practicum, research, clinical, student teaching, field experience, and independent study). Definition of a week: A week begins at 12:00 am, Monday, CST; ends at 11:59 pm, Sunday, CST.
