

EAST EUROPEAN: POLISH LANGUAGE AND CULTURE / MINOR

Minor Credit Hours: 18

East European Americans are the largest European-American ethnic group in the Chicago metropolitan area with as many as 1.5 million people claiming this ancestry. This minor is uniquely innovative and interdisciplinary in nature, emphasizing both language and culture.

The importance of Polish is based on two factors: the country's unique geopolitical position in Europe and significant population both American citizens and residents of Polish descent in Chicagoland.

Heritage speakers must consult with the Department Chair of the World Language Program when selecting language courses for this minor. The upper-division course may not be applied to another minor or any major offered at Lewis University.
