¹ Courses range from THTR 38400 Practicum to THTR 42500 Dramaturgy Practicum. Each Practicum is arranged with an individual instructor and is designed to give the student practical experience in different areas of theatre. The Practicums consist of work on one of the five mainstage productions offered by the department each year. Students may take more than the required number. Consent of the show's director or the department chair must be acquired before registering for these Practicums.
